

granted leave to proceed without prepayment of the fee.<sup>2</sup> In eight (8) subsequently filed cases,<sup>3</sup> Plaintiff's failure to pay the filing fee or to seek leave to proceed without prepayment of that fee was brought to his attention through show cause orders. Accordingly, Plaintiff is now, without question, aware of this requirement. Nonetheless, he has sought to file the instant action, once again, without the requisite fee or motion. As a consequence, this court is, once again, forced to utilize its resources in order to alert Plaintiff to a requirement of which he is fully knowledgeable but has chosen to ignore.

In addition, before Plaintiff sought to file the above-captioned action, the undersigned had recommended dismissal in Case Nos. CIV-12-917-R [Doc. No. 9],<sup>4</sup> CIV-12-953-R [Doc.

Plaintiff was made aware through those recommended dismissals that he could not state a valid claim for relief unless he pleads facts which show what a named defendant allegedly did or failed to do to cause him the alleged constitutional harm. Id. Nonetheless, Plaintiff has, once again, sought to file the instant complaint in which he, once again, fails to explain in what manner he maintains the named defendants violated his constitutional rights. Once again, he simply lists various topics and concludes that his constitutional rights have been violated but does not state facts to show what allegedly happened to him and what individual allegedly did it. Neither does Plaintiff supply meaningful dates.

Accordingly, because he is making no discernable effort to correct the errors which, as the foregoing demonstrates, have been carefully pointed out to him, Plaintiff is directed to show cause by Monday, December 3, 2012, why this complaint should not be summarily dismissed. Plaintiff is specifically cautioned that a belated payment of the $350 filing fee or submission of an application to proceed without prepayment of the fee will not suffice as a

Order to Show Cause [Doc. No. 5].

A review of the court file reveals that as of this date Plaintiff has not responded to this court's order. He has not cured the deficiencies, shown good cause for his failure to do so, or requested an extension of time to comply with the order. The undersigned finds that Plaintiff's failure to comply with this court's order together with the court's right and responsibility to manage and control its case load, warrants dismissal of this action without prejudice. See Nasious v. Two Unknown B.I.C.E. Agents at Arapahoe County Justice Center, 492 F.3d 1158, 1161 n. 2, 1162 (10th Cir. 2007) (sua sponte dismissal for failure to comply with court's order permitted under federal rule, and court need not follow any particular procedures in dismissing action without prejudice for failure to comply).

It is further noted that Plaintiff has now been placed on notice in eight (8) newly filed cases in this court that he has accumulated three strikes pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915. See, e.g., Prather v. Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco Firearms and Explosives, CIV-12-1369-R [Doc. No. 5].

RECOMMENDATION AND NOTICE OF RIGHT TO OBJECT

Therefore, it is the recommendation of the undersigned that Plaintiff's action be dismissed without prejudice to refiling. Any objection to this Report and Recommendation must be filed with the Clerk of this Court on or before the 9th day of January, 2013, in accordance with 28 U. S. C. §636 and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72. Failure to make a timely objection to this Report and Recommendation waives the right to appellate review of both the factual findings and the legal issues decided herein. Moore v. United States, 950 F.2d 656, 659 (10th Cir. 1991).

This Report and Recommendation disposes of all issues referred to the Magistrate Judge in the captioned matter.

ENTERED this 20th day of December, 2012.
